

Bill graduated from the University of Richmond in 2004 with a degree in political science and sociology. In 2007, he received his Juris Doctor degree from The University of Texas School of Law. While in law school, Bill worked as a legal clerk for TML and clerked at an insurance litigation firm in Austin. Prior to joining TML as legal counsel, Bill served as an assistant attorney general in the Open Records Division of the Office of the Attorney General.