

Calvin E. Webb II

Work Style

I would describe myself as thorough and hard working. I am honest and open with everything I do including telling clients things that need to be heard. I place the best interests of my clients before our company.

What attracted you to Gradient?

As the founder of the company, formerly Webb Watch Corp., I wanted to serve a need in the industries, which I knew best. I enjoy working hard and working for our clients.

Experience

I have more than 35 years of management consulting and audit experience spanning the government, not-for-profit, and higher education industries. I worked in the Public Services group at Hitachi Consulting. From 1998 – 2002, I served as lead partner with Arthur Andersen LLP in the Public Sector Industry Business Consulting program for the Western Region. I also served in the audit practice of Arthur Andersen for 17 years.

Education

I received my B.B.A. in Accounting from Texas Tech University.
