

Gabriela Gutierrez is a Director in Fitch Ratings' U.S. Public Finance Group. Her primary areas of credit analysis are in the tax-supported and water/sewer utility sectors.

Prior to joining Fitch in 2006, Gabriela served with the State of Texas as an investment analyst at the Texas Water Development Board from 2001-2005 and as a financial analyst at the Texas Bond Review Board from 1999-2001.

Gabriela began her career as an accountant in private practice. She earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from The University of Texas at Austin and is a licensed CPA.