

Pam Kirkland, CPPO, CPPB
Purchasing Manager
City of Richardson
P.O. Box 830309
Richardson, TX 75083-0309
972-744-4132
214-537-4467 (cell)
pam.kirkland@cor.gov

Pam Kirkland is a thirty-four year veteran in public purchasing with experience in both state and municipal government and is the Purchasing Manager for the City of Richardson, Texas. Pam is past president of the National Procurement Institute, Texas Purchasing Management Association (now TXPPA), the Public Purchasing Association of North Central Texas and is currently serving on the Evaluation Committee for NPI's Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award and the Board of Trustees for the TASB Local Government Purchasing Cooperative (Buyboard). She is a past board member of the Texas Municipal League and is proactive in purchasing related legislative issues in the Texas legislature. Pam served on the Board of Directors for the North Texas Regional Certification Agency, the Universal Public Purchasing Certification Council Board of Examiners and the Advisory Council of the Houston-Galveston Area Council of Governments. Pam received her Certified Professional Public Buyer certification in 1994 and her Certified Public Purchasing Officer certification in 1998 and is a graduate of Leadership Richardson, Class XX.